

To: Toyota Fleet Customers
Subject: Flexible Fleet Data, Built for You

As part of our ongoing commitment to enhancing your fleet management experience, Toyota now offers two prepaid fleet data options that complement our monthly subscription offerings, providing seamless access to advanced vehicle data APIs and services.

Designed to help you optimize performance, enhance safety, and improve operational efficiency, these data packages deliver actionable insights to support smarter, faster decision-making. With more value and flexibility, they represent the next step in driving innovation for your fleet.
